

Name: _____

Rubric: Art Donor Project

Category/Score	Description	3 “Expert”	2 “Apprentice”	1 “Novice”
Lead/ Introduction Did I complete the following components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Lead ○ Introduction 	Lead: The degree to which the opening statement engages the reader in the topic: The Art Donor. Introduction: The degree to which the writer provides pertinent background information and details related to the art donor scenario).
Establishing Criteria: Did I complete the following components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Develop Criteria 	The degree to which there is evidence that the writer established criteria to inform a decision about which art piece should be on display in the local children’s hospital
Negotiating Criteria Did I: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Show how evidence of how criteria is either present or absent? 	The degree to which the writer explicitly provides evidence of how the criteria applies/does not apply to piece of art.
Reasoning Did I complete the following components: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Explain how the claim and evidence fits together? 	The degree to which the writer connects the criteria (claim) and evidence, which helps the reader understand the relationship between the two elements.
Conclusion Did I complete/include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Bringing a sense of closure to the argument of judgment 	The degree to which the conclusion brings a sense of closure to the argument
Mechanics Did I complete/include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Grammar/Spell-check ○ Sentence variety ○ Vocabulary 	The degree to which the paper is error-free and demonstrates a command of the mechanics of sentence construction and grade-level vocabulary.
Attention to Format: Did I: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Make sure my writing reflects the format I selected? 	The degree to which the paper demonstrates a command of the format selected (i.e. letter, argumentative essay, newspaper article, or power point).

Total Score: _____ / 21 points

Letter Grade: _____